About the area:

Bring your family and let them explore the beautiful Pacific Northwest while you learn to make your perfect baby.

We are located in a valley at the base of Mt Rainer, Mt Hood, Mt Adams, and Mt St Helens. There are many places to visit and view beautiful scenery within a few minutes to hours drive. Summer and fall are our nicest months but the temperatures are still moderate, seldom getting above 90. There is wonderful fishing, hunting and camping in the area. If lucky you can see Bald eagles in the back yard. In the winter months we are within an hour's drive of the White Pass ski resort. If you're not up to that just bring a tube and send the kids sliding down the hill behind our house! We are just off of Hwy 12, which is a main east-west highway and kept well sanded and plowed in the winter. Our drive is a bit steep so worse case scenario is park at the top of the hill and walk a 100 yards to the house. You can reach us by flying into either Seattle (SEA) or Portland, OR (PDX) airports. Distance is virtually the same, Portland is a little easier getting in and out of. The closest Amtrak station is Chehalis. Mass transport is non existent! If coming from afar we will help you with your transportation needs by helping with car rentals to picking you up at the airport.
